

NEW APPOINTMENTS IN FABER. MR ZOBOLI IS THE NEW PRESIDENT AND CEO OF THE HOODS BUSINESS UNIT. MR REMEDI TAKES ON THE ROLE OF FABER MANAGING DIRECTOR

Fabriano, January 2015. Faber has announced a change of leadership. Ettore Zoboli is the new President and CEO of the Hoods Business Unit of the Franke Group, while Riccardo Remedi has taken on the role of Managing Director at Faber SpA. Mr Remedi will be staying on as Commercial Director of the Hoods Business Unit within the Kitchen System division of Franke, which has been a part of Faber since 2005.

Franco Bergamini has led the Hoods Business Unit for the last three years, obtaining important results in terms of the company's global leadership in the field of extractor hoods. Mr Bergamini will continue to support the group as Chairman of the Board of Directors of Faber SpA, engaging in important internationalisation projects.

Ettore Zoboli is the former CEO of OM SpA, a subsidiary of the German Kion (a multinational manufacturer of materials handling equipment). He has also held many important positions in other multinational companies, including NACCO Materials Handling Group and Fiat. A graduate of the Turin School of Management, he has extensive experience in the management of industrial companies worldwide.

Riccardo Remedi has been with Faber since 1995, where over the years he has taken on roles of increasing responsibility, actively contributing to the growth and profitability of the Hoods Business Unit within the Franke group. In particular, from 1995 to 2004 his career progressed in the field of business development in Eastern Europe and the Middle East, finally serving as Director for these areas. After two years in the Commercial Refrigeration and Shop Furniture Unit of Industrie IFI, as head of the group's Export Department, he returned to Faber in 2006 as EMEA Sales Director. In 2011, his role expanded to Global Sales Director, in which capacity he will continue to serve alongside his new appointment.
